Dear applicant,

We are contacting you regarding the submission you have made to the call for Satellite events to be part of the New European Bauhaus Festival.

Please note that the main event dates (in Brussels) have changed, and the Festival will take place from 9 to 14 April 2024 as announced on our website and social media over the previous week.

We are pleased to inform you that your application for a satellite event has been successful, upon the condition that you can accommodate the rescheduling of your event to be compatible with the new Festival dates.

The new time frame for eligible satellite events outside of Brussels is from 9 to 21 April. Please note that we can only remotely connect with events from the main event in Brussels if they occur during the Forum part of the Festival, which runs from 9 to 12 April.

The new time frame for eligible satellite events in Brussels consists of two periods: one just before the main Festival, from 8 to 9 April, and another after the Festival, from 15 to 21 April.

Could you please confirm by 29 January your interest and flexibility to reschedule your event and organize it within the new timeframe.

Until further notice we kindly ask you to refrain from communicating about the outcome of your application. You will receive an update from us once the communication activities can be launched.

In addition, please note that no commercial activities will be allowed at the event venue (please refrain from organising any type of fundraising and/or crowdfunding actions that would be carried out at the event venue).

Kindly note that the website and programme of the New European Bauhaus Festival will be available in the coming weeks. The Festival will be open to the general public who will be able to attend in person or follow the activities through a dedicated online platform.

We look forward to your participation in The Festival.

Kind regards,

The Festival of the New European Bauhaus
